

Primary
Health
Clinicians

Peripheral Intravenous Cannulation & Phlebotomy Simulation 2025

This training program is designed to equip registered nurses and other clinicians working in primary health with the essential skills and knowledge required for effective peripheral intravenous (IV) cannulation and phlebotomy. Participants will gain hands-on experience and theoretical understanding in the following areas: vein and device selection, techniques and procedures, complication management, safety and best practices.

18 March | 15 July | 16 September
Group A: 0900-1100hrs | Group B: 1200-1400hrs

Middlemore Hospital: 100 Hospital Road, Otahuhu, Auckland
Clinical Training and Education Centre (CTEC) Level 1 Building 7

Registration process on www.countiesmanukau.health.nz
Search: "Peripheral Intravenous Cannulation and Phlebotomy"

Refer to Trybooking.com for equipment levy/fees information
Note: Late Cancellation, DNA and Reschedule fees apply

Pre-requisite: Ko Awatea LEARN Online Module:
Peripheral IV Cannulation and Phlebotomy

Professional Development Hours:
Online Module: 3 hrs | Simulation: 2 hrs

VascularAccess@middlemore.co.nz