

“People are starting to see the difference we can make.”

VIP

violence intervention
programme

“The fact that a lot of women say ‘thank you for asking’, you know you are doing the right thing.”

“We learned from the mother that there was quite a history of violence from her partner... When CYF interviewed the other children in the family they also made disclosures of indecency and physical abuse.

In most instances there is more than one victim.”

treating violence
as a health issue

Contact details for your FVI Coordinator

www.moh.govt.nz/familyviolence

New Zealand Government