

Who is Eligible for Free Cervical Screening

Are they a woman or person with a cervix aged 30 years and over who is unscreened?
(i.e., they have never been screened for cervical cancer).

This includes women and people with a cervix aged 70 to 74 years who have never been screened

No

Are they a woman or person with a cervix aged 30 years and over who are under-screened?
(i.e., it has been five years or more since their last cytology).

No

Are they a woman or person with a cervix aged 70 to 74 years who has not had two consecutive normal cervical cytology results between 62 to 69 years (or a 'HPV not detected' result in the five years prior to age 70)?

No

Are they wāhine Māori or whānau with a cervix aged 25 to 69 years?

No

Are they a Pacific woman or person with a cervix aged 25 to 69 years?

No

Are they a woman or person with a cervix aged 25 to 69 years who holds a Community Services Card?

No

Yes

They are eligible for a free routine cervical screening, irrespective of whether an HPV self-test or cervical sample is used

They are not eligible for a free routine cervical screening, irrespective of whether an HPV self-test or cervical sample is used

What Follow-Up Cervical Screening Tests are Free

Follow-up testing is free for everyone, regardless of their eligibility for free routine screening.

